Hesham Heikal joined Emaar Properties in 2020 as the Group Chief Financial Officer. He has 30 years of diverse experience gained in the Middle East and the United States spanning across financial, operational, investment and Board-level roles. During his career, his responsibilities covered areas such as accounting, corporate finance, general management and overseeing corporate support functions such as legal, procurement, administration, human capital, and information technology.

Hesham spent the first 15 years of his career with PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) where he worked in Cairo, Dubai, Abu Dhabi and with the firm's practice in the Silicon Valley, California. When he left PwC in 2008 he was the Partner leading the firm's Assurance practice in Abu Dhabi. His experience covered several industries with a particular focus on Real Estate, Manufacturing (mostly FMCG), Telecommunications and Technology.

Prior to Emaar, Hesham was the Group Chief Financial Officer of Alrajhi Holding Group, a multi-billion-dollar Saudi conglomerate with investments in Industrial, Infrastructure, Building Solutions, Contracting, Financial Services, and Real Estate. In his role, he reported to the Group Chairman and served as a member on the Boards of Directors of the Group's Industrial, Building Solutions and Contracting sectors as well as two industrial joint ventures, and served as a member of the Executive Committee and Audit Committee of a joint venture.

From November 2015 till May 2019 Hesham was the Group Chief Financial Officer of Dubai Properties Group, the largest privately held integrated real estate developer in Dubai. Scope of his responsibility included finance, strategy, contracts and procurement, information technology and cost control. In addition to his main role, Hesham also served on the Board of Directors of some of the Group's joint ventures in the UAE and Bahrain.

Hesham is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) from Colorado, USA and holds an MBA from London Business School.
